HOW TO READ THE INFIELD TOTE BOARD

Located in the infield behind the finish line, the Tote Board provides constantly updated current odds, amounts in wagering pools, jockey and weight changes, fractional times for each race, results and payoffs, and messages.

Below is an example of what the tote board looks like and how to read it.

Number of the next race to go off	Minutes until start of next race	Actual odds based on amount of money bet on individual horses. Updated as money is wagered.
Don't miss the Kentucky Derby on May 7th!!	RACE NO. 5	TOTAL 18625
	MINUTES TO POST 10	WIN 5265
	POST TIME 3:00	PLACE 2739
	TIME OF DAY 2:50	SHOW 1059

Message board Starting time of next race Total money wagered to win, place & show on all horses in the race Money wagered on individual horse to win, place & show

WHAT THE ODDS MEAN

The odds do not represent each horse's chances of winning, but what bettors think those chances are, based on how they actually bet. Odds are based on the WIN pool only. The lower the odds on the tote board, the better the chances of that horse winning the race, in the estimation of the betting public. The odds are set by the amount of money the public bets on each horse.
